Singer/Songwriter, Ani Zonneveld is one of the few female Imams (Muslim Religious Leaders) in the world! She is the Founder and President of Muslims for Progressive Values, and insists that the Qur'an is a progressive text which presents an egalitarian view of Islam.

In addition to advocating for universal human rights and interfaith Initiatives within Islam, she works to create music to counter both Extremism and Islamophobia. She has created a new genre, "Islamic Hymns," since in the Sunni tradition there are very few songs to speak of. There is no musical heritage as Christianity has.

Despite her efforts she is met with resistance, including vocal opposition from many fellow Muslims and even death threats.

She will speak of traditional, conservative and progressive interpretations of Islam and her work as a human rights advocate, both in the US, UN and globally. She will conclude with a Q & A time following the Service.

Rev Kathy McCall has been a life-long spiritual seeker. She has served five different churches as a Unity Minister in Tempe, Arizona, Palo Alto, Santa Cruz, Santa Rosa, and currently Unity of South Bay in Torrance, CA.

An Astrologer, Dream Worker, Healer and Storyteller, she has taught and facilitated workshops for over 35 years. She is the author of the book, The Unorthodox Life: Walking Your Own Path to the Divine.
